

UN BIASED
UN BOSSED
UN BALANCED

THE ~~WIG~~ WIGWAM

Weather:
Three guesses

Vol. 1, No. 7

August 22, 1935

So Long

GREYS LOSE LAST WATER MEET <sup>167-</sup><sub>134</sub>

The final water sports of the season was ended with a most thrilling war canoe race. The Greys were the victors -- but only by a very narrow margin.

The events of the day were won by the Maroons to the tune of 167 to 134. Novelty contests and straight races helped to create and hold the interest of the many spectators who lined the shore.

FOOTLIGHTERS TO PLAY "THIRST"

Inasmuch as tonight's show will be the last regular performance of the Footlight Knights for the season, the selection for a play had to be a good one. ~~Tittman~~ And it was a good one. Tittman and Murphy have chosen "Thirst"! Those who have seen it know how good it is. Those who haven't need only ask the others. As the curtain closes on this wonderful act, you will know you have seen the best show of your life.

S

Special to The Wigwam

This afternoon at 2:15 P.M., in the Camp Kawanhee baseball stadium, those two splendiferous aggregations and proponents of the great American game, the New York Yankees and the Cincinnati Reds, will clash. The victors of this contest will be crowned the champions of the world's elite series.

The activities of the afternoon will begin with the usual custom of having a celebrity pitch the first ball. We shall be honored on this particular occasion by the presence of none other than Jerry "Gramp" Thomas, one of the old-time ball players of Maine. Gramp used to swing a mean bat in his day.

The champs of the National League, the Cincinnati Reds, have an undefeated record behind them. They are managed by "Home Run" Bryant who has thus far led the league with an envious pitching ~~pitchin~~ record. The game should put his hurling arm to a real test. Hicks Lawrence is captain of the team and plays a corking game at short-stop. 'Tis really quite a sight to see him light upon the ball so white. (Oh dear - yawn).

The latest addition to the team is none other than that Columbus import, Dr. "Night Cap" Cordray. Although he has played in only two games, his popularity even increases with time and action. Keep your binoculars trained on that man, dear readers if you want to witness real baseball ability.

The remainder of the team is composed of such stars as Dick "What-a-man" Forcc, Irving "Babe" Ruth, Stew "Runner" Johnson, Elmore "Farmer" McKee, Westcott "Guppie" Gallup, and Larry "Handsome Dan" Hinds.

(Con't. on page 2)

THE WIGWAM

A newspaper published weekly at Camp Kawanhee, Weld, Maine

Editorial

At the close of this fifteenth season of Camp Kawanhee, we of the staff of the WIGWAM wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for the splendid cooperation and reception which has been given us. It has not only been an honor but, in addition, it has been one of those real and rare enjoyments to have tried to render a lasting service to the regular camp program.

The memories of a glorious summer will ever ring true in our minds. The few moments of thought and reflection that we may enjoy will be enriched by these memories and the anticipations for coming years.

This year has been so pleasant in many ways. Wonderful country likeable climate, a splendidly equipped camp, real red-blooded American boys, a congenial and affable staff, practically everything that one's heart could desire. What more could anyone ask? And now that we are soon to return to our winter homes, let us keep in mind the many things we have learned at Kawanhee and thereby profit.

BASEBALL (Con't. from page 1)

The New York team is captained by "Bunny" Johnson. Athlete that he is, he plays the usual sterling game at shortstop. Boy, is he a whiz or is he a whiz? The latest mid-season addition to this team is that star of stars, "Assistant Camp-director" Heimburger. He adds a dash of that Indian wildness to the game, Don't you know? A good man, Heimburger!

The roster is completed by names no less famous than Chief "Further-further" Marshall, "What-a-Windlo" Fawcett, "Black-man" Neidig, "Moonshine Marysville" Fisher, Warren "Sully" Sullivan, Bob "Just-Another" Havighurst, Johnny "Tear-Em-Up" Taussig and Albert "Buddy-to-You" Frost.

Havighurst pitches and, believe you me, dear readers, he is one, sweet, little ball-tosser. He would go mighty well on any man's ball team.

Special bleachers have been erected in an attempt to provide for the thousands of spectators who are certain to come from far and wide. Of course, only a small proportion can hope to procure the highly coveted seats.

The Pathe News Service Will be represented by that cunning camera man, Mr. Raymond C. Frank. Mr. Frank has toured the country extensively snapping shots of these famous clashes. He has spent several days here already getting local atmosphere in preparation for the final event.

The box seats will be occupied by such nationwide figures as our own President Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Right-Honorable, High Commissioner, Colonel Sidney E. Sweet, and those giants of baseball, Wee-Willie Altman and bashful Luke Ward.

THE LINEUPS CINCINNATI REDS

Gallup	3b
Ruth	cf
Lawrence	ss
Bryant	p
Force	lf
Dr. Cordray	lb
Johnson	cf
McKee	2b
Hinds	rf

NEW YORK YANKEES

B. Havighurst	p
Neidig	lf
Fawcett	lb
M. Johnson	ss
Heimburger	3b
Sullivan	c
Marshall	cf
Taussig	2b
Fisher	rf
Frost	rf

The above is the probable batting order and starting lineup.