

The Wigwam

Volume XXVIII, No. 7

Camp Kawanhee, Weld, Maine

August 26, 1962

Maroons Gain Final Victory

The Maroons climaxed their six-week surge and emerged as victors for the season by a score of 21,760 to 20,285. Such a result was not unexpected since the Maroons had been gradually increasing their lead for four weeks. Nevertheless, both teams and their captains were nervous and unsure as Del Tracy fumbled with the score. It was a hard earned victory for Ken Love and a disappointing defeat for John Willis. Willis had nothing to be ashamed of for his team fought well under his vigorous leadership.

In the August 17 issue of The Wigwam the score was announced as Maroons 8,736; Greys 8,514. Since then, or in about a week of activities, the score doubled. This is a tribute to the fine final drive led by both captains. To push the boys, rallies were held almost every day. The boys were checked on by the captains' assistants and activity heads kept their departments open late to give the boys a chance to complete the several requirements they might need for an additional level.

The additions of the JLS, SLS points, J.M.G. points, tournament points, etc. appreciably increased the score. But, as in the past, it was the achievement levels which made up the bulk of the score.

Final Banquet and Awards Ceremony

This summer's final banquet really began at two in the morning as Bea and Emma arose to prepare the meal. It was not until one o'clock that the camp was able to enjoy the fruits of their labor. And, there was certainly a lot to enjoy — fresh fruit cup, roast turkey, dressing — the works. The thanks given to the kitchen by way of a hearty Kawanhee cheer was well deserved.

There was more that went into making the banquet a success than the food. Attractive decorations were made by the ladies of the head table: Mary Baker, Mrs. Duffey, Mrs. Nowald, Frannie, Mrs. Dexter, and Mrs. Tracy. Each boy had an individual placecard at his place and the room was decorated with fir boughs, bunchberries, and maroon and grey bunting. Many thanks ladies!

The awards ceremony was opened by Dean Miller who spoke briefly on the importance of remembering the meaningful parts of the camp season and forgetting the petty ones. After this the captains, Ken Love, of the Maroons, and John Willis, of the Greys, were introduced by John Nowald. The special cup awards were given out by R. C. Frank followed by the presentation of ribbons for the different activities. Following this the meritorious awards were presented by the activity heads who do not give out ribbons. As the ceremony drew to a close, the Junior and Senior Red Cross Life Saving awards were given out, the high point winners read, and, finally, the score announced. It was a fitting end to an excellent season.

NEW CITIZENSHIP AWARD

This summer, through the generosity of Byron E. Ford, a long-time supporter of Kawanhee, three new cup awards have been added, called the Byron E. Ford Citizenship Award. It is given in memory of Dr. Carl H. Elmore, the Camp Chaplain at Kawanhee from 1941-1956. This award is to be presented each year to one boy in the Jr. B, Jr. A, and Senior Divisions who, by a vote of the Senior Counselors, is considered outstanding in High Ideals, Sportsmanship, Leadership, Perseverance, Co-operation, and Unselfishness. This summer's recipients of the award are: Jr. B, Ted Coons; Jr. A, Robert Dorn; Sr., Chuck Compher.

NEW AWARDS IN CAMPCRAFT

Two new awards are being given to boys in Campcraft this summer. These are the Junior Maine Woodsman and the Maine Woodsman awards given by the Junior Maine Guide Committee of the Maine Camp Directors' Association. The Junior Maine Woodsman Award goes to the boys who have passed all their Junior A levels in Campcraft. The Junior Woodsman Award goes to the boys who have passed all the Senior Levels in Campcraft. Each award is an attractive shoulder patch.

Because the tests in Junior A and Senior are based on the Junior Maine Guide Program, the winning of these awards is a step toward the winning of the Junior Maine Guide award. The JMG award is the highest honor given to any boy for excellency in camping. It is an honor presented at a banquet held at The State Capitol, Augusta, Maine.

These awards in 1962 go to the following boys:

Junior Maine Woodsman: Larry Brainard, John Sheehan, and Carlos DelValle — Jr. A Levels.

Junior Woodsman: Kim Kaiser and Frank Stewart — Senior Levels.

Junior Maine Guide: Frank Stewart.

Baseball

On Saturday afternoon the Maroon Jr. A's defeated the Gray Jr. A's in baseball by the score of 5-2.

Diego DelValle pitched a marvelous one-hitter and the team behind him added the punch that was needed. Jamie MacDonald pitched for the Grays striking out three but walking nine.

The Maroons scored their runs in the first, second and fourth innings. They took advantage of the Gray's sloppy fielding to score. The Gray team scored their runs in the second and third innings on errors.

Tennis Tournament

In spite of a spell of bad weather, Dan Sebastian and Bob Duffley succeeded in running off the final matches of the Annual Tennis Tournament.

The most exciting match of the tournament finals was in the Senior Division. Dave Roth defeated Sonny Dargusch 6-3, 6-4 to win the championship. The score does not express how well and how fiercely contested the match was. Dargusch played the more spectacular tennis, but Roth, due to added experience and strategy, calmly concentrated on wearing his opponent down.

In the Jr. A Division, Diego DelValle triumphed over Jamie MacDonald 6-0, 8-6. Once again it was consistent play that made the difference. In the first set DelValle easily defeated him. In the second set Jamie gained better control and led 5-2. Diego never gave up though and took the next four games. MacDonald rallied to tie the score at 6-6. At this point MacDonald developed a blister and Diego won the next two games.

The Junior B Championship went to Lance Valk as he downed Rocky Heindel 7-5, 6-4. Both boys played consistently and the match seesawed until Valk was able to put two games together and win both sets.

Boys making the semi-finals were:

Senior	Jr. A	Jr. B
Carlos DelValle	Jamie MacDonald	Bill Ferguson
Sonny Dargusch	Jeff Bishop	Lance Valk
David Roth	Diego DelValle	Rocky Heindel
John Brainard	Tuck Nolan

Scouting At Kawanhee

The Scouting Program makes it possible for boys to advance in scouting throughout the summer. Several boys through the years, have completed the requirements for the highest award in scouting, the Eagle Award.

A Court of Review is held each year, and the results are taken to the Court of Review in the boy's home town where they are acceptable.

This year Bruce Birch and Tom Taylor earned the rank of First Class Scout, while George Brainard and Scott Tracy each received their Second Class Scout. Merit Badges were as follows: Cooking—T. Coons, C. VanGorder; Nature—T. Taylor; Geology—T. Taylor; Swimming—C. VanGorder, T. Taylor, S. Ruhle; First Aid—T. Coons, T. Taylor, C. VanGorder; Rowing—T. Taylor; Canoeing—T. Taylor, T. Coons; Firemanship—C. VanGorder, T. Coons, T. Taylor; Public Health—T. Coons.

Basketball

On Wednesday night, Savage's Roughriders routed Love's Lovers by a score of 50-20. Behind the fine shooting of Chuck McGee, who scored twenty points, Sonny Dargusch, thirteen points, and Derek Savage, nine points. With the fine rebounding of Savage, the Roughriders managed to pull into the lead early and make a rout of the game in the third period. The Roughriders led 10-5 at the end of the first quarter, and 20-12 at the half. In the third quarter, they broke the game wide open, leading 40-12.

Ken Love and Mike Saunders were the heroes of the Lovers in points and rebounding.

On Saturday afternoon the Maroons were routed by the Grays in the annual basketball game by the score of 48-19. Behind the fine shooting of Fernando Viejo, who scored 25 points, and Derek Savage, who scored 17 points, the Grays managed to gain a huge lead in the beginning and maintain it throughout the complete game. The Grays led 10-2 at the end of the first quarter, and 23-10 at half-time.

Only at one point during the game did the Maroons ever seem to be threatening. Trailing by seventeen-two, midway through the second period, the Maroon coaches, Chuck McGee, and Sonny Dargusch, began to score. The deficit was quickly cut to 19-10, but that rally was cut short. The greatest assets, though, in the Gray victory, came in the rebounds and in the defense, in which the Maroons lacked greatly. Starring in the defense of the Grays were Derek Savage, Fernando Viejo, Tim Ferguson and Jim Sarich. Carlos DelValle did a good job defensively for the Maroons.

East-West Game

On Wednesday night the East defeated the West 7-3 in the annual softball game. Behind the brilliant pitching of Carlos DelValle and the fine fielding of Fernando Viejo, and a long home run by Dave Roth, the East managed to get an early lead and hold it through the five-inning game.

The East came up with two runs in the top of the first and the West scored a run in the last of the first on fine base-running by Sonny Dargusch. The Easterners scored a run in the top of the second, but the West tied the score with two runs in the second. Dave Roth hit a tremendous two-run homer off West pitcher, Chuck Compher, to give the East a 5-3 lead. The East came up with two runs in the fourth, and going into the last of the fourth the East was leading 7-3. With one out and two men on for the West, Ken Love stepped up to bat. Ken hit the second pitch in a straight line to shortstop Fernando Viejo, who caught the ball.

Little League Championship

The annual Little League champion all-star game was played Thursday, with this year's champions, the Blue Eagles, defeating the all-stars, who represented the other 3 teams in the league, by a score of 4-1 in a five-inning game. The hero of the week was curve-baller Lance Valk, who pitched a no-hitter for the Eagles. Rocky Heindel was the starting pitcher for the all-stars, but a few walks, and errors by his teammates led to his downfall. He was relieved by Bob Sherwood, who was hit harder but seemed to have more control of the ball.

Mike Meserole led off the game for the all-stars, but Valk bore down and struck out the side. Mike Standen and Allan Bishop led off with walks for the Eagles, and Mike scored from second as Tad Brockie bounced into a double play, which was started on a fine fielding play by Oliver Colt, the All-Star shortstop. The All-Stars were easily retired in the top of the second, and in the second Lance Valk led off with a two-base error, and he came in on a two-base error by Mark Standen. The Eagles went down in order in the top of the third. In the last of the third, lead-off hitters Ted Coons and Mike Standen drew walks, and Coons scored as Allan Bishop grounded out, and Standen came in on Brockie's single, the only hit in the game. The All-Stars seemed to have a rally going in the top of the fourth when Fred Smith led off with a walk, and stole second and went to third but was out on a close call at home. The Eagles were easily retired in their half of the fourth, and the All-Stars came up for their final time in the fifth. Lead-off hitter, Bob Sherwood, struck out and Rocky Heindel grounded out for the second out, but Eddie Clark walked on a 3-2 pitch to keep the All-Stars' hopes alive. Mike Meserole then walked and while Ollie Colt was up, a perfect double steal was executed, and Clark came in to score on a wild throw. Ollie Colt finally drew a walk, but Bruce Leiper struck out to end the game.

It was a well-played game by both sides. It was also the first time in the history of the camp that the All-Stars have lost.

Chimney Trail Provides Great Mountain Trip

Nine boys led by Ed Chace and Ken Love left camp Wednesday morning on one of the best mountain days all summer to ascend the thrilling Chimney Trail on Tumble-down Mountain.

Bill Doyle, Butch McLean, Bruce Birch, John Estabrook, Bill Neidig, Jim Romey, Lance Smith, Keith Bance, and Jeff Bishop made up the party which climbed into the small truck driven by Pop Nowald.

Trail Work On Blueberry Mountain

On August 23 the last mountain trip of the 1962 season headed for Blueberry Mountain which is Kawanhee's own. In 1957 and 1958, Kawanhee boys, led by Ed Chace and Dean Miller built the trail up this unusual mountain with its completely white top.

Ed Melcher, Bob Himmelright, Ray Kanzenbach, Keith Bance, Steve Ruhle, Peter Nielson, Kent Scott, Frank Stewart, and Ed Chace, made up the group.

This was to be a trailwork trip, blazing with paint, clearing brush, and making the Kawanhee Trail easier to follow. The boys were armed with paint cans and hand-axes with which to work.

Tuck Bower left the group at the logging road on the Phillips road at 10:00 a.m. The group reached the ledges with their gorgeous view at 11:35, and the summit at 12:20 p.m. The boys spent at least an hour picking quantities of huge blueberries.

At 2:00 p.m. they started the descent, this time really clearing brush and throwing dead wood off the trail. Tuck Bower was waiting with the camp truck at the Phillips Road at 4:00 p.m. to take the group back to camp.

Once again the boys came back to camp with vivid memories of splendid views on one of the best mountain days all summer. As Steve Ruhle said: "I want to take that trip again next summer. This is a grand mountain."

Last Sunday Services

The last Sunday dawned clear and cold, allowing the final worship service to be held on the Point. After the invocation by Dean Miller, the congregation sang We Praise Thee O God, Our Redeemer, Creator, and their praise seemed justified as the sun began to warm everyone. Ed

Chace read from the seventh chapter of Matthew the sentences dealing with the wise man who built his house upon a rock, and the foolish man who built his house upon sand. Dear Lord and Father of Mankind was sung by everyone, followed by another prayer and the choir's rendition of When Morning Gilds the Skies.

Dean Miller's sermon was titled "On Your Mark, Get Set, Be Ready For The Gun." It dealt with the preparations one makes for life. Dean told of Sandburg's relation of what Lincoln said when studying by the fire. "I'll get ready, perchance my time will come." His time did come, and he was prepared. He bet his life on God, His principles, examples, etc.

Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg was a man who built his life on honor. In one game when his Chicago team was playing Princeton, he observed Princeton was getting ready for a touchdown play. Everyone on the bench wanted someone sent in to warn the defensive quarterback. At this time, such a move was against the rules. Stagg said, "No". Soon after he was named Coach of the Year and went on to become one of the most successful of all football coaches.

To stand for what one thinks is right is not easy. Churchill during one of the darkest periods of the war said, "We have nothing to give but blood, sweat, toil and tears. But if we go down, future generations will say, 'This was their finest hour'." Make every moment of your life your "finest hour".

Vespers, as is usually the case, consisted of the singing of religious and patriotic songs followed by slides. This Is My Country and One Little Candle were added to the regulars. Forest Dexter showed slides of this year, and Bob Elliott showed slides of sailing and how camp looked this past winter when he and Peter Schofield visited it.

Going of the Chief

As all camp seasons must, Kawanhee's 1962 camping season came to an end Friday night with the Going of the Chief. The Coming of the Chief and the Going of the Chief symbolize all that Kawanhee represents. In July each boy brings a stick of wood which he throws into the council fire and is initiated into the Kawanhee Tribe by Chief Kawanhee who gives them his blessing. The sticks symbolize their contributions.

When the season closes, the Chief comes again to wish them well and to send them away to their homes in the East and West with his blessing. Each lodge has its own fire. The message, written by sachems selected by each lodge and advised by Dean Miller, is read to the whole camp group and then is buried by the Fire-Altar where it remains throughout the winter months. This message is the link between camp seasons. At the Coming of the Chief next July, it will be dug up and read as the message from 1962 to the camp of 1963.

The Chief suggests each year that on Christmas Eve each boy light a candle in the window facing toward Camp Kawanhee and make a silent wish that he will again be a Kawanhee brave on the shores of Lake Webb in 1963.

The spectacle of the great Central Fire of the Great Spirit soaring into the darkening sky, the 14 little lodge fires blazing around it, and sight of the men and boys, hands joined, heads bowed, while Chief Kawanhee, arms raised toward the sky, implored the Great Spirit to be with his braves, and to give them strength of character, love for their fellow campers, and steadfastness of high purpose, is one which each man and boy will remember through the years.

Chief Kawanhee reminded them that never again will they all be together and urged them to take home the good, the true, and the pure in their daily lives as lessons learned at Camp Kawanhee. Ed Chace, as he has since 1954, portrayed Chief Kawanhee, and, as usual, gave dignity to the role.

A Word of Thanks

When many people have worked hard and faithfully on a project it is difficult for one to properly and adequately thank the others. This summer's Wigwam has been made possible through the combined efforts of several people who have been generously assisted by many others. All these people deserve the gratitude of those who have enjoyed this summer's paper.

The man who deserves the most credit was only able to be here for four weeks, but in that time he organized the staff, figured out the mechanical aspects of putting out the paper and left his assistants with a clear idea of what should be done when he left. To you, Dave Logan, we wish to express our sincerest gratitude.

The two to whom I personally owe the greatest thanks are Ken Reilly and Bob Angerer. After Dave left there would have been little hope of putting out a worthwhile paper if they had not been willing to help me as much as is humanly possible. They are the ones who stayed up with me until three and four in the morning putting the issues together. They are the ones who wrote the articles no one else could or would write. They are the ones who deserve the credit for whatever success the last few Wigwams have gained.

John Sheehan is another who has spent a great deal of time on the paper. He has been taking care of the levels and doing most of the typing, a really rough task. Helping John has been Herb Lorentzen. Ed Chace deserves a great deal of credit for his excellent articles on the mountains, trips, and other topics. Forrest Dexter has done a fine job of reporting the nature trips. Mike Peppe and Pete Kuhns have covered the waterfront. Campers, Dan Metraux and Mike Meserole, have kept us well informed on baseball. And, there have been others who have helped out when an article was badly needed. To all of them we would like to express our gratitude.

Of course we all owe a great debt of gratitude to Cam Scarlett, who, in his many years of wonderful work on the paper left this year's group with a tradition and heritage unequalled in camping papers. It is his ideals the staff has tried to live up to and sustain. Even though he could not be present with us in body, he was in spirit.

To all of these people and, especially, to those who have worked closely with me I wish to say, "Thanks."
