Eastern — The boys leaving for New York will take the train out of Boston at 1:00 p.m. August 25, arriving at Pennsylvania Station at 5:25 p.m. Arrangements are not complete as yet for the stop at Stamford. This information will be listed in the Wigwam when received.

Lynx Camp on Tumbledown Mountain

Not to be outdone by the Beaver Lodge, the boys from the Lynx Lodge decided that they, too, would spend the night on top of Mt. Tumbledown.

After a long-hot ascent, the boys welcomed a dip in Crater Lake before setting up camp for the night.

The boys were up bright and early the next morning eager to try their skills at cooking bacon and blueberry pancakes. They decided that their cooking was satisfactory, but they liked Leonard's cooking better. Their descent down Parker's Ridge was in record time so they could be back at Kawanhee in time for lunch.

The boys making the trip were Bill Albershardt, Tim McKee, Doug Means, Paul Myers, Pete Niehoff, Tom Ruhle, and Scott Tracy. Bob Lancione was away at the time on Junior Maine Guide. The counselors, Herb Lorentzen and Laird Smith, supervised the trip.

Wolcott Twirls No-Hitter

For the second time this year, the Red Rogues and the Green Gems faced each other in a battle for first, and for the second time the dazzling Gems won. This time 9-1. Craig Wolcott, stepping up his campaign for the MVP award, won his fourth straight enroute to a no-hitter.

After a scoreless first, the Gems opened up in the second frame. Andy Williams doubled with the bases loaded and Steve Trautman dumped a circuit shot into the right field seats with two on. Fireman, Mark Standen, came in to relieve ailing wheeler Leigh Perkins and retire the side. In the Rogue half, Bob Litwak was hit by a Wolcott fast ball and reached first. He promptly stole second and third and came home on an overthrow.

The Gems tallied again in the fourth with Trautman singling and reaching third on the center fielder's miscue, finally scuffing the plate on an overthrow. As in the third, the Rogues were blinded by the radiance of Wolcott's hurling and couldn't score.

The fifth brought two more runs for the victorious Gems. With two on, Wolcott looped a double to right, scoring both. Wolcott returned to the mound and retired the first three Rogue wood-toters to wind up the contest.

Surging Angels Upset Gems

Wednesday, July 28, brought the biggest upset of the year and changed the scope of the pennant chase. By beating the Gems 8-3, the Angels moved to only one game out of second which puts pressure on the Rogues to win. It also puts pressure on the Gems who must hold onto the No. 1 position. The main reason for defeat, as everyone knows, is that Lefty Craig Wolcott did not pitch.

The Angels scored three quick runs in the bottom of the first. With two on, Scott Leiper singled. He moved to third and scored on John Fisher's grounder to short.

The Gems managed to push one across with a walk to Hank Hiser who then moved to third and scored on a passed ball. With Steve Trautman on the hill for the Gems in the second, the Angels went wild. Pete Murphy, Tim Williams, Wally Whitmyre, Doug Brockie and Fisher all walked. With two out and the pond full, Trautman cracked and balked in the fourth run of the inning.

The Gems scored two in the third on walks to Wolcott, Andy Williams and Trautman, and a big single to left by Les LeVeque, whom the Gems got on waivers from the Black Widows, who later took him back. The Angels battled in their half hoping to play a fourth inning. They rallied one run on Scott Leiper's single to right scoring Pete Murphy. The game ended after three full frames.

Standen Stymies Widows

The fourth week of the KLL ended rather ordinarily — The Widows lost, but Mark Standen, Rogue all-purpose man and Red candidate for MVP, twirled a neat 3-hitter enroute to his second win. The Rogues won 8-3.

The Redmen started things off faster than an "Altmaier Quickie" in the first half of the first. Standen singled with two on via free passes. Litwak walked as did Rich Caraboolad and Rocky Smith, capitalizing on Mike Standen's, ace Widow windbraker, spree of wildness. The Widows of Black failed to mark in the first. Following a scoreless second frame, the Rogues opened up the throttle a little on singles by Clark Myers and Tom Scott; two base hits by Mark Standen and Pete Lamb, (the latter's first hit of the season).

Down 8-0 in the third and final inning, the Widows went for broke. With leapin' Luis Benitez and Keith Wolcott on, Bill Proctor unloaded a three run blast into the tennis courts. Hurler Standen buckled down and retired the next three Black "white ash" hefters.

ascent to the summit of superiority — the league lead. They rolled to a 8-3 victory over Tom Borghi's Bombers.

The Boys jumped into a quick 2-0 lead in the initial frame on singles by Mike Meserole, Pete Hoffman, and speedster Frank Watson. The Bombers tallied once in their half by scoring Larry Licht on safeties accredited to Rick Whitmyre and Tom Borghi. A scoreless second followed.

Miller's men exploded in the top of the third; Jim Proctor doubled, Meserole, Hoffman, Miller, Watson, Scott Tracy, Denny Goodman and Chick Myers singled. Rennie Brown grounded out to end the inning. The Borghi's failed to scuff the dish.

After holding the boys in the fourth, Tom's Tigers lashed out three runs with Whitmyre tripling, Jed Hoffman singling and massive Bob Germain doubling. In the fifth's top half, with Proctor and Meserole on via singles, a dispute arose over a call by umpire Laird Smith. Captain Borghi announced that the game was being played under protest, but the protest was disallowed.

New Arrivals to Kawanhee Staff

Rev. G. Stanley McCleave from Bridgeton, New Jersey, will serve as the Camp Director of Religious Counsel and Camp Chaplain. He is on vacation from his post as Minister of the Central Methodist Church, Bridgeton, New Jersey.

He is a graduate of the Drew Theological Seminary and did graduate work at Temple University, Philadelphia, Pa. Rev. McCleave is originally from Belfast, Ireland. He will be with us for the rest of the camp season.

Gene Cayton arrived Wednesday to help out in the infirmary and in the campcraft department. He has been a counselor at Kawanhee for seven summers. At the present, Gene is a third year medical student at the New York Medical College.

Hoch Makes A Run!

It has been a custom for many years for the Junior Counselors to challenge the Senior Counselors to a softball game on Saturday evening. Up until this year, the juniors haven't been too successful. However, this year the standing is three games for the juniors and only two for the seniors.

The score of the July 30 game was 4-3 in favor of the seniors. Nelson Lancione saved the score from going higher by catching several long pop-flys to left field which looked like sure hits. The senior counselors are thinking about sending Nelson to town on an errand before the next game. An errand that will keep him away for the duration of the game, of course!

Dave Hoch was the player of the day, however. He made two spectacular plays. He is the first left fielder to make a bullseye in archery while playing softball. He was running to snag a pop to left field when he slipped and hit the archery target nearby. His most accomplished achievement was that he made a run. He singled to get on first and was RBI'd by George Lamb's double. Thus giving the seniors the run to win the game. Of course, it was time for the movie, so the game was called. What better time could you find to end a ball game than when the seniors were ahead — so said the seniors. The juniors objected, but the protest was vetoed by RC.

The winning pitcher was Del Tracy and the losing pitcher was John Bacon.

Swift River Trips

Two Swift River Trips left camp this past week for two days of camping at the Kawanhee Out-Post Camp. There was very little water in the river due to the lack of rain in Maine this summer. The campers thought perhaps the river was named wrong, but in the spring, when the snow melts on the mountains, the river is very high and very swift. Thus the name of Swift River. They enjoyed doing their own cooking and hiking through the woods.

The first trip included the following boys: Jack Abbott, Bruce Bennett, Ken Chapman, Brad Coley, Doug Allan, Paul Doege, Phil Drake, Jim Estabrook, Craig Miller, Joe Naylor, Blake Paterson, Doug Smith, David Smith, Raub Smith, Fred Trayser, Frank Weeks, Keith Wolcott, Tim Williams, Carlos Zapata. The counselors supervising the trip were Leddy Baxter, Herb Lorentzen, Bill Doyle, Rick Davis and Bates.

The second trip left camp Thursday and returned Friday. These boys were Brian Albyn, David Allan, Luis Benitez, Doug Brockie, Chip Button, Bill Dudjoc, Frank Erickson, Tom Heer, Duncan Hill, Charles Hiser, Scott Leiper, Pete Murphy, Chris Niehoff, George Oliva, Chris Schaeffer, Rocky Smith, John Tobin, Wally Whitmyre, Craig Wolcott, Milton Zapata. The counselors supervising this trip were Nelson Lancione, Tom Taylor, Rick Davis, assisted by the Junior Maine Guide trainees Bob Lancione and Bob Heintz.

The Sunday services, July 31, were conducted by our new minister, the Rev. G. Stanley McCleave of the Central Methodist Church, Bridgeton, New Jersey.

His scripture was from Luke 15: 11-24 which was read by Leddy Baxter, a student of religion at Colby College, Waterville, Maine.

Rev. McCleave asked the boys to think of this question: "What can I really count on in life?" He assured them that they could always count on God, as he was everywhere and especially God is wherever you are. This was not difficult to picture as the services were held in the Church on the Shore overlooking the lake and the mountains.

Sunday evening, the camp gathered in the Rec Hall for music and a short movie.

Bruce Bennett of the Falcon Lodge sang a solo for the Congregational Church of the Village this past Sunday. Bruce is 8 years old. He did a fine job and the village of Weld appreciates his contribution to their services. Bruce is from Columbus, Ohio.
