Camp Kawanhee, Weld, Maine

August 6, 1979

INSPIRATION POINT

Tall trees, a shimmering lake and the majestic mountains are the setting at Inspiration Point where an interdenominational service is held each Sunday. Campers and staff participate in singing, prayer and scripture readings. Catholic campers attend Mass in Dixfield.

Guest speakers have included Forrest Dexter, a professor at the University of Maine and former Kawanhee Nature Director, and the Reverend Hal Meyers whose interest and concern for Kawanhee date back to his days as a camper. John Detrick, Sr., and Greg Knight, a religion major, have also participated. Herb Birch co-ordinates the program.

Solos have been performed by Peter van den Honert and Jon Trayner. Mark Standen, Chris Yardley and Peter accompany singing on their guitars.

A Kawanhee Choir is practicing for next Sunday. Included are: Charlie Bingham, Peter Kuhns, James Rogers, Lee Gentry, Scott Argo, Peter Argo, David Kindle, Charlie Johnson, Mike Reilly, Eben Mehegan and Peter Brown.

WRESTLING TOURNAMENT

The first 1979 Grey-Maroon Wrestling Tournament was held the evening of July 21st. With nine matches slated the tournament was a great warm-up for later bouts scheduled against Hyde Academy and the final camp tournament during the last week.

The first match of the night in the 60 pound category pitted Alex Nachman, a Grey, against Tom Kindle, the Maroon rep. In a match of good fundamental wrestling, Tom bettered Alex by a 4 - 0 score. In the 70 pound division, Todd Finetto of the Maroons pinned Greg Hall of the Greys at 3:27. This match brought the score to 9 - 0 in favor of the Maroons.

The 80 pound division pitted Joe Lara (M) against Charlie Bingham (G); Joe won 13 - 7. In the 90 pound division there was an exhibition match between two Maroons, Ed "Zzub" Fleming and Erik DiPaolo. Ed came out on top by a score of 5 - 4. In the second exhibition match, Andy DeLong beat Scott Mallory 5 - 0 in a match wrestling very expertly by both Greys.

In one of the best matches of the night Bill "Buzz" Fleming (M) beat Brian Birch (G) 7 - 0 to bring the team score to Maroons 15 - Greys 0. During the final exhibition match between two Greys, John Finetto pinned Doug Wright at 2:12.

A highlight of the evening was the match in which Juan Fuster (M) got a 3 point fall close to the buzzer Carter Messick (G) 5 - 2. The final match of the night saw Fred Beckham (G) pin John Hall (M) at 2:03. At the close of the evening the score was Maroons 18 - Greys 6.

On July 29th Kawanhee is hosting a match against Hyde School in Bath, Maine. Last season Kawanhee was on the short end of a 24 - 12 score. We're looking forward to an exciting win this year.

THE INN CROWD

Campers aren't the only hungry people in Maine. The Kawanhee Inn satisfies the appetites of many parents, visitors and local guests with delicious, satisfying meals. Under the expert direction of the chef LYDIA DETRICK. The Inn serves lobster, Sunday Brunch, elegant buffets and fantastic home cooked meals. Lydia teaches kindergarten at The Columbus (Ohio) School for Girls. She is the mother of three campers - John, Sam and Andrew.

Last year MARCIA BROWNE and ANN BAKER from Columbus visited the Inn for three weeks and enjoyed the atmosphere so much that they agreed to return for this season as staff members. Marcia and Ann are responsible for many improvements including an elegant country look in the dining room - chocolate brown table cloths, burlap curtains and lots of birch and evergreens strategically placed. When you add the view of Lake Webb or a candlelight dinner by the cozy fire on a brisk day, you have all the ingredients necessary for a truly memorable dining experience.

ANTOINETTE FARRAR returns for the third year as receptionist and bookkeeper. Ann is a senior in physical education at Ithaca College. Her home is Columbus, Ohio. Photography is a favorite hobby. She takes most of the pictures seen in the annual catalog.

KATE ESTABROOK has been at Lake Webb every summer of her life but has only spent the past two as a waitress for the Inn. Dad is, of course, the Director of Kawanhee. She will return in the fall to Wittenberg University where she will be a sophomore majoring in special education.

ELIZABETH GREEN has also vacationed in Maine for many years but has been a waitress for two seasons. Liz is a teacher at the Harvard University Law School kindergarten. She and her sister JUNE GREEN live in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Julie is in special education at Lesley College. Julie makes the delicious breads and pastries for the Inn. During hours off she may be seen jogging five to ten miles along the roadside. Liz is sometimes seen sailing in her off-hours.

JANET BLAU has also returned for a second year as an assistant cook. She is a major at Colby College, her home is Wayland, Massachusetts. Janet's father and one brother are former campers; her brother Peter is here this summer.

MARGIE CUNNINGHAM, DIANE SMITH, BILLY KIPP, and NORMAN YOUNG are at the Inn for their first season. Margie comes from Ashley, Ohio, and will enter Ohio State in the fall. She washes pots and pans this summer, but her real interests are macrame, rock climbing, field hockey and other sports. Diane is the cabin girl. She's a student at Franklin and Marshall College and comes from Gahanna, Ohio. Norm is a high school student from Byron, Maine, and enjoys hunting, fishing and trapping. He is the dishwasher. Billy lives in Weld where he is also a high school student. He's the groundkeeper this summer and enjoys water skiing in his spare time.

MAROONS STILL IN THE LEAD

As camp reached the halfway point the Maroons were still in full command with an 800 point lead. Then BA Altmaier gave the score at campfire for the last time before the final banquet. The Maroons had extended the lead and were ahead by 1800 points. The Greys are undaunted, however, for 75% of the points are scored during the last two weeks of camp. The official score at the end of five weeks is Maroons - 10,248 and Greys - 8,449.

O J'S CORNER

Two weeks to go, folks! It will soon be over and you'll have to wait until you're home for the answer to the big puzzle. Let's start with an easy one. Who was the fastest runner in history? Give up? Adam, he was first in the human race! Now for the puzzle. Using any desired mathematical symbols, combine six 1's to make them equal 12. Be sure to look for the answer in the final issue.

BOATING

With two weeks of super weather campers have accomplished a great deal. Many levels requiring the mastering of specific skills have been passed. During weeks four and five the following boys earned levels:

C1 - Mark Peterson, Rob Ryder, Mauricio Garrigues, Doug Mueller, Jamie Sanford
C2 - Rob Ryder, Mauricio Garrigues, Todd Finetto
C3 - Greg Hall, Todd Finetto, Alex Nachman, Rob Ryder

WATER SKIING

Fun was had by all during a whipping week in the Water Skiing Department. The hot weather has been very conducive to water skiing on the glassy waters of Lake Webb.

"Hit it!" was yelled by many boys for the first time ever during these past two weeks. Peter Blau finally made it after four years of coaxing. After his first run, he declared, "Ferd, I like skiing." Cameron Bartlett added water skiing to his list of action sports. Excellent effort was put forth by Eben Mehegan to get up on two skis. Other new skiers are Scott Argo, Lee Gentry, Mike Reilly, John Slipp and James Rogers.

It took about sixty minutes but Mike Wallace finally got up on one ski. Other new slalom skiers are Fred Beckham, Ben Kauffman, Doug Wright, Malachi Connolly and Peter Carnahan who had fine form on his first run.

Those boys receiving their Beginner Level are: Scott Argo, Peter Blau, Lee Gentry, Tim Paxton, Mike Reilly and James Rogers.

Receiving Beginner and Intermediate Levels are: Peter Carnahan, Bernd Simon, Buck Mallory, Eric Miller, George Norris, Jim Ottley, John Slipp, Mike Wallace, Buckley Zimmerman and Bob Withington.

Boys receiving the Intermediate Level include: Charlie Johnson, Tripp Johnson and Kurt Widen.

A special award goes to Jim Ottley for being the first person ever to hold his nose on wipe outs.

CAMP CRAFT

Blueberry pie in a reflector oven, Lake Webb bass wrapped in bacon, hunters stew over an open fire -- these are some of the good things prepared in the Campcraft Department. The boys learn to find their way through the forest with a compass, to handle a knife or an ax, build a shelter, dig a latrine and many other survival skills. The following levels were passed during the past two weeks:

C1 - Todd Finetto, Mark Peterson, Jamie Macpeak
C1 - Mauricio Garrigues
B1 - Jeff Columbia, Peter Brown, Al Fuster, Bo Mallory, Buck Mallory
B2 - Greg Hall, Bob Withington, Tripp Johnson
B3 - Chris Finetto, James Rogers
A1 - Gerry Bingham, Fernando Olazabal, Charlie Bingham, Al Goizutta, Peter Kahn, Jose Villanueva, Mike Wallace, Doug Wright
S1 - Rick Spencer
