Five New Counsellors Grafted On Kawanhee Staff

By F. CAPRA, JUNIOR A

There are five new counsellors in Camp Kawanhee this summer.

Mark Taylor comes from Columbus, Ohio, where he teaches Spanish in North High School. He is also an active member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians. He has promised to put on at least one exhibition while in camp. He will direct the Junior C program with Mr. Barth.

Marty Costello hails from Jamestown, N. Y. He goes to Ohio State University, where he is well known as a member of the swimming team. He is going to be an instructor in Swimming and Tennis at Kawanhee.

Herbert Birch comes from Tenafly, N. J., where he is the principal of a junior school. While at camp, he will have charge of the work in Scouting.

Lynn Sutherland lives in St. Louis and plans to go to the University of Wisconsin. He has just been released after three years in the Navy. He will be an assistant in the Shop.

Bill Briner hails from Columbus, where he attends Franklin University. He was in the Army for quite a while. He will assist Mac in First Aid work.

Ma Frank Welcomes Tribesmen. Was First to Reach Camp

To returning tribesmen, the most welcome sight in all Kawanhee was that of Ma Frank, calling her greeting from under the trees by her cabin. Best of all, it was a Ma Frank who looked much better than she did last summer. On the whole, Ma had a good winter in Englewood. On June 3, she had a comfortably uneventful train trip to Portland with her niece. There Peleg White met her in the camp car and drove her straight to Kawanhee. Now she is settled for the season in her beloved cabin.

Other members of the Frank family preceded the crowd. Mrs. George Frank has been at Kawanhee Inn for several weeks, ably preparing for the most vital job of all, that of feeding the camp for the summer. With Betty and Billy, Mrs. Raymond Frank has been on Pine Point since June 8.

Many Survivors of Past Years Found on List of Counsellors

Kawanhee's twenty-fifth season opened under the experienced direction of its owners, Mr. George Frank and Mr. Raymond Frank, on Friday, June 29. A capacity enrollment of campers and an unusually large group of Junior Counsellors give promise of an active and vigorous summer. The staff of Senior Counsellors boasts an infusion of new blood, in the form of five new men, and a backbone of counsellors who have repeatedly proved their worth and devotion to the camp in past seasons.

Mr. H. C. Marshall takes up his manifold duties as Head Counsellor and Director of Activities for the twenty-fifth time. He is Headmaster of Columbus Boy Choir School, whose Sunday evening broadcasts were a regular feature of the Mutual Network.

David Barth resumes his work with the special Junior C program which he directed with such notable success in 1943. At his home in Columbus, Ohio, he teaches Social Science in the Linden McKinley High School.

A member of the camp's Advisory Council, Clarence Bateman, joins the staff for his thirteenth season. At his home in Columbus he teaches Industrial Arts at West High School. His special province at Kawanhee is the program of trips, which is looking up a bit with easing of gasoline rationing.

Another veteran, Morse Burtis, of Englewood, N. J., fulfills the multitudinous duties of Office Manager. Under his able direction are the camp Post Office and store and into his sympathetic ears are poured the difficulties of every camper.

After an absence of four years, Robert Duffey returns to take charge of Tennis. He comes from Columbus where he teaches Industrial Arts and fills the post of Assistant Coach in Football, Basketball and Varsity Tennis at Bexley High School.

Arthur Kiefer is again the counselor in command of all Nature work. Already this all-inclusive position has forced him to become the defender of the fish nests in the cove and the sub-

Chief and Dr. Defoe Inspect Campers, Pronounce Them O. K.

With the arrival of the two groups of campers on Friday, June 29, the Eastern boys on the morning train and the Ohio gang in the afternoon, there began a series of events and ceremonies necessary to the beginning of a camping season. Assignment to lodges took place Friday afternoon. The remainder of the day and the following morning were devoted to unpacking. Saturday afternoon was occupied by the taking of weights and measurements and by the visit of the camp physician, Dr. Garfield G. Defoe of Dixfield, who conducted a thorough physical examination of every camper and counsellor.

Saturday evening, Chief Kawanhee extended his traditional welcome to the camp. The impressive ceremony took place once more under the quiet pines on Council Point, with Mr. Marshall filling his customary role of the Chief. Next morning, the first church service was held in the chapel on the shore. Dr. Elmore's talk constituted another inspiring welcome to the new camp.

Popular Ladies Operate Infirm, Typewriter and Buzz-Board

Three of Kawanhee's favorite ladies again fill key positions in the camp. Much to the satisfaction of everyone, Miss Marie McElwee, R.N., is the camp nurse. This is the tenth summer for her to hold sway in the Infirm, and it is general knowledge that no one can handle the job with such capability and charm as Mac the Nurse. At her home in Columbus she is a Medical Social Service Worker in the Grandview Heights Public Schools and Instructor in Child Care in the Home Economics Department of the High School.

Two other friends of former years are Mrs. Carl Spangler and Miss Helen Krumm. Mrs. Spangler is the camp secretary. Miss Krumm, teacher of Physical Education at Starling Junior High in Columbus, once again lends her skill and her knowledge to the work in the Nature Room.

stitute parent of the baby robins whose mother ill-advisedly built her nest above the Post Office window. In the winter, he exposes students of North H. S. in Columbus to Chemistry.

For the second year, Roy Nickerson of Tenafly, N. J., has charge of the Kawanhee waterfront, as well as of Boating and Canoeing. He teaches Physical Education at Leonia High School in Leonia, N. J.

John Nowold, Coach and Director of Physical Education at Mound Junior High School in Columbus, heads Kawanhee's Athletic program. Archery is another of his activities in this, his third summer in camp.

Noel Piersche once more rules Kawanhee's large and busy Shop. In Columbus, he teaches Mechanical Drawing at Central High School. This is his twentieth summer at Kawanhee.

As usual, Campbell Scarlett of Columbus, edits the Wigwam and enjoys the questionable honor of writing the camp Log. He comes the closest to rivaling Mr. Marshall's record for survival, this being his twenty-second Kawanhee summer as camper and counsellor.

W. J. Smith again has the important post of head of Aquatics — counsellor in charge of swimming and teacher of the J. L. S. classes. He is Director of Physical Education at Dwight Morrow High School in Englewood.

Fishing, Baseball and the camp orchestra promise to make a full summer for Carl Spangler, Assistant to the Principal and Instructor in Chemistry at North High School, Columbus. This is his fourth session at Kawanhee.

For the third time Carl Strong is the leader of the Woodcraft Department. He teaches Mathematics at the Englewood School for Boys.

Howell Windle, who teaches Mathematics at the Bok Vocational High School in Philadelphia, once again has charge of the Range. The duties of camp photographer comfortably fill what sparetime he may have.

Ed. Note: The majority of the present inhabitants of the Crows' Nest are first-year Junior Counsellors. They will alternate as Lodge Assistants with other Junior Counsellors of the same class who are now in the lodges, each group serving two periods of two weeks each during the season.
