Greys End Summer in Triumph

The Greys won the final honors for 1958 with no if's, and's or but's! They registered a victory of 3535 points, the widest margin to be enjoyed by any team in five years. The totals which Dave Fergus pinned to the banner on August 24 were: Greys, 26,610; Maroons, 23,075. Thus, once and for all, the Greys put their brand on a summer's scoring contest which has, to all intents and purposes, been largely theirs from the word "Go". They seized the initial advantage on July 12 and remained firmly in control from that date forward, building up their advantage as they went along. Only on August 2 were they temporarily checked when the suddenly assertive Maroons nipped a hundred points or so out of the Grey lead. Before a serious Maroon threat could develop, however, the Greys found their second wind and forged steadily ahead to the ultimate large-scale victory. Captain McCoy and his boys are most heartily to be congratulated, and no one tendered these congratulations with more enthusiasm and sincerity than did Captain McElroy and the Maroons who, all through the summer, gave the Greys such a good, strong, cheerful run for their money.

The score took a giant stride in the last few days of activities between Sunday, August 17, and the closing of work on levels Friday noon, August 22. For that period alone the score was: Greys, 12,967; Maroons, 10,037. This came close to doubling the combined total, advancing it from 26,681 to 49,685. A solid share of these points were contributed by activities which report only once a summer, or events which occur only at season's end. Scouting produced 705 points. Three camp tournaments weighed in at 2555 points — 470 from the Archery tournament, 840 from the Tennis matches, and 1245 from the big Wrestling tourney. The accounting of the Junior Maine Guide points gave the Greys a distinct edge, 495 to 130, and the results of the Life Saving classes favored the Greys 1500 to 1200. Another sizable windfall for the Greys was in the form of bonuses for completed plaques, amounting to 1100 Grey points as opposed to 600 for the Maroons. The vast bulk of the week's score, however, came from the Achievement Levels as the final payment on an immense accumulation of good work begun earlier and then quietly and systematically carried through to its conclusion. It is altogether satisfactory that such points should determine the final score for 1958, for in the accomplishments represented by such points lies the true value of this, or any, Kawanhee summer.

Hall Tops High Point Winner List

A Junior A topped this year's list of forty high point winners. Maroon Steve Hall added up the impressive total of 1050 points to cross the finish line 85 points in advance of his nearest rival and 335 ahead of the next serious contender for scoring honors. Work on his plaque produced all but 165 of these points. He passed levels worth 685 points and, as the bonus for completing his plaque in two years, received 200 more. Of his non-level points, the completion of the Junior Life Saving course gave him 100, and the Wrestling championship in the 125 lb. weight class added 35 more. Ten points from the Tennis tournament and 20 from Scouting completed the count for a total which made him High Point Winner for the whole camp for 1958.

Runner-up in the scoring sweepstakes was a Junior B, Dave Roth. His count was derived from virtually the same sources as Hall's: 550 from levels; a 200-point bonus for a two-year plaque; 100 from J. L. S.; 80 from Scouting and 35 as the result of participating in a couple of tournaments. Dave was a Grey, as were the next two ranking men, J. Beal with 715, and T. Lawrence, with 700 points.

Boy Scout Merit Badges, 1958

On Thursday, August 21, a Kawanhee Board of Review passed on the work in Scouting done by campers this summer and, for satisfactory completion of requirements, gave certificates of approval for the campers to present to their home Boards of Review. Chuck Kirkpatrick was Chairman of this Board, which was composed of the Messrs. Forry, Chace, Welton, Miller, Fergus, Gatsch, Hoster and R. C. Frank.

Merit badges are variously evaluated in points by the Scouting Department. This summer's crop added up to the not unimpressive total of 705 points. Ed Spelyng realized most handsomely on these Scouting points, ending up with 160. The most notable merit badge of the season was the Life Saving badge earned by D. Harrison, for it completed his work for his Eagle Scout ranking. The campers recognized by the Board of Review were:

Camping Merit Badge: E. Spelyng.

Cooking Merit Badge: J. Fodor, C. Gilbert, D. Roth, E. Spelyng.

First Aid Merit Badge: B. G. Burr, G. Delany, J. Fodor, J. Holden, G. Lamb, W. Lenk, D. Roth, E. Spelyng, B. Welton.

Fishing Merit Badge: E. Spelyng.

Life Saving Merit Badge: J. Beal, C. Fowler, S. Hall, D. Harrison, J. Holden, G. Lamb, B. McCoy, D. Roth, E. Spelyng, B. Welton.

Nature Merit Badge: E. Spelyng.

Rowing Merit Badge: E. Spelyng.

Swimming Merit Badge: J. Beal, J. Holden, G. Lamb, B. McCoy, D. Roth, E. Spelyng, B. Welton.

Eagle Scout: D. Harrison.

Junior and Senior Life Saving

One of the most substantial accomplishments of any summer is the winning of a Red Cross Life Saving certificate. This summer, under the able instruction of Gardner Defoe and Dave Fergus, assisted by Mike Mathews and other members of the Swimming Department, a class of twenty-four campers completed the course in Junior Life Saving, and three passed the Senior Life Saving tests. Both J. L. S. and S. L. S. are rated at 100 points. There follows the list of the campers who completed the courses in 1958:

Junior Life Saving: R. Alexander, R. Angerer, J. Beal, R. Bentley, C. Compher, B. Connor, B. Cooke, H. Davis, R. Doran, J. Fisher, S. Hall, D. Harrison, T. Hinners, T. Hirsch, G. Lamb, R. Liddell, H. Long, J. McGee, F. Osmers, D. Roth, R. Shepard, E. Spelyng, B. Welton, J. Willis.

Senior Life Saving: C. Dorman, T. Dunlap, C. Fowler.

All of the work in Swimming at Kawanhee, as well as the Life Saving classes, is organized according to the American Red Cross plan and swimmers are classified according to the Red Cross categories. Certificates for the lower classifications were distributed in the Dining Hall during the banquet on August 24. In view of the fact that this same work is recognized in the Swimming levels, the already list-happy readers of the Wigwam are spared this particular list. At the awards ceremony, certificates for the highest category short of Life Saving, Advanced Swimmer, were presented by Mike Mathews to C. Clarke, J. Dunnick, T. Lawrence, R. Livingston, M. Peppe and W. Unckrich. Red Cross awards new to Kawanhee, certificates as Water Safety Aids, were presented to Tony Hirsch and Mike Mathews by Mr. Defoe on the same occasion.

Mat Finals Fill Rec Hall

The finals of the 1958 Wrestling tournament were staged with much fuss and fanfare in the Recreation Hall, Wednesday evening, August 20. Wrestling Counselor Bill Keating welcomed a large and enthusiastic audience at 7:30 P.M., and introduced the officials: Jack Welton, head scorer; John Pethick, head timer: Dave Fergus; Fred Hoster; Joe Shepard; Mike Mathews; and guest referee, Nick Nickerson, who alternated with Keating as presiding genius on the mat. The contestants entered to great applause. For the evening they were divided into two temporary teams, the Reds and the Whites, captained by Randy Livingston and Chuck Dorman respectively.

Opening the bill was a spirited match between two mighty 55-pounders, Bob Perkins and Bill Doyle. By a score of 4-1 Perkins captured the crown for this class which had eluded him in 1957.

The first pin of the evening was registered by R. Edmonds when he nailed Dave Fung to the mat in 1 minute and 38 seconds for the 65 lb. title.

The 75 lb. class produced a very active contest between two well-matched opponents, Tim McElroy and Jim Sarich. The decision went to McElroy, 5-2.

Roy Welton, a compact young wrestler whose name has been appearing on the finals cards for several years won the 85-pound class bout by pinning Bob Barnes in 2 minutes, 20 seconds.

Another Welton, Brad, fared not so well in the 95 lb. class. In a stiffly contested match he succumbed to the concentrated drive of John Fung's attack and was pinned in 2 minutes and 33 seconds.

The 105 lb. match had the whole crowd guessing all the way. So evenly matched were the two contestants, Jack Wiggin and Ross Shepard, that the event ran into an extra period — a prolonged debating session for the officials. Wiggin appeared to have a slight advantage in build, which was almost exactly offset by Shepard's greater aggressiveness. Keating finally consigned the clash to the records as "a draw and a judges' decision in favor of Shepard".

George Lamb had his hands full in the 115 lb. division, for he had to wrestle a skidding zipper as well as a very active opponent, Wayne Brewer. The latter was conquered with a pin in 1 minute, 59 seconds. Come to think of it, a pin would have conquered the former even more quickly!

The shortest match of the program was the encounter of the two 125-pounders, Steve Hall and Don Casto. Hall pinned his opposite number in 1 minute, 15 seconds.

Bill Unckrich, moving up from the 115 lb. class in which he triumphed last year, took the 135 lb. crown for 1958. Pitted against a younger opponent, Terry Lawrence, Unckrich dominated the action from whistle to whistle to win 4-0.

One of the more strenuous matches of the evening was in the 145 lb. weight class, with Charles Clarke and Charles Dorman pitching in and wrestling furiously straight through the three rounds. Clarke was the ultimate winner, 3-2.

Another very hot contest was that of George McElroy and Tom Knowlton in the 155 lb. division. Action was fast and unremitting from the first whistle, with McElroy maintaining control of the situation by a narrow margin most of the time. The victory was his, 2-1.

When Ben McCoy and Randy Livingston strode onto the mat to grapple for the "Unlimited" crown, the judges evidently decided that there would soon be wrestlers all over the place and hastily withdrew from the ringside to give the grapplers plenty of room. The retreat was well advised, for Randy's lengthy limbs and Ben's irresistible drive produced a match as widespread as it was vigorous. Ben's more intensive training paid off in the end to give him a 4-1 victory in the climactic event of the evening.

McElroy Stars in Tennis Finals

Friday, August 22, following the water meet at about 4:00 P.M., the final rounds of the 1958 Tennis tournament commenced.

E. Spelyng and N. Perkins, whose brilliant playing had matched them in the Junior A finals, put on one of the most spectacular tennis matches of the '58 season. The game was not exceptionally fast, but it was all well played with both boys serving well and placing the balls accurately. Perkins finally downed Ed 6-4, 6-4.

The two oldest and most experienced players in the tournament, George McElroy who is an assistant in Tennis and Randy Livingston, were pitted against one another in the Senior finals. Fast service, lightning strokes and well co-ordinated playing highlighted this match above the others. George displayed excellent tactics and defeated Randy 6-3, 6-2.

The Junior B battle for supremacy, played after supper Friday, found Pepper Sweet, who was downed in last year's finals by George Tittmann, matched against Dave Roth for this year's championship. To reach this contest, Pepper had found it necessary to down Mike Olson by the strenuous score of 9-7. Pepper downed Dave more with less trouble, 6-1, 6-3, for the championship.

Greys Win Meet by Narrow Margin

The Greys captured the season's final water meet, 87-81, during the breezy afternoon of Friday, August 22. The victory was no cinch for the Greys. They took a spectacular lead in the first three events — 49 to 2, to be exact but then had to watch it dwindle steadily under Maroon attrition until the Greys ended up with a mere 6-point margin.

The Greys shone the most brightly in the Junior B Cub division, where their able entries cleaned the board. Bill Doyle, Ricky Wilson and Sid Soons, against very stiff competition, swept the "Rope-and-back" race in which the contestants were required to move from the beach to the non-swimmers' rope and back by any means of locomotion — wading, bouncing, flying — except swimming! Sheer energy won this one, but the Ping-pong Ball Relay took more finesse. Each member of the three-man squad was called upon to blow the ball a third of the way between the two docks. Billy Casto seized a nice lead in the first lap; Jimmy Duffey kept the ball moving along briskly on course; and Sid Soons brought it in several huffs and a puff in the lead.

Swimming relays, a number of them closely contested and quite exciting, predominated on the bill, and a couple of off-beat canoe events provided variety. The showy and difficult Canoe-over-canoe Rescue was scored both on speed and on efficiency of execution, with Ben McCoy easily winning on both counts. The Capsized-canoe Race proved to be an amusing event. Two teams of two men, one balancing and one paddling, gingerly navigated submerged aluminum canoes across the swimming area between the docks. Butch Burr handled his tipsy craft neatly to come in far ahead of the wildly rolling Grey entry. Canoes also figured largely in one of the more colorful swimming relays, the "Over-and-under-canoe". In this the winning Maroon team owed its victory to the extra lengths picked up in each "over" of the first lap by S. Hall's technique of taking a semi-racing dive rather than relying on the common eel-like slither.

The program concluded with a Junior Counselor-Senior Counselor event — this time a Medley Relay — which was quickly won by the Seniors after the usual prolonged and spirited preliminary debate as to personnel. There follows a summary of the competitive events:

JUNIOR B FREE STYLE RELAY — First: Grey team, C. Comph-er, anchorman; Second: Grey team, A. McElroy, anchorman; Third: Maroon team, R. Edmonds, anchorman.

Two other Maroon-Grey clashes occurred during the week, only one of which was productive of points. Thurs-day evening a Senior (including Junior Counselors) base-ball game was played to a 4-4 tie and left off the record books. After supper Friday, August 22, Maroon and Grey basketball squads from the same division met and the Maroons ad-ministered a merciless 49-12 trouncing to the luckless Greys. On the Maroon team were D. Anger, J. Dunnick, G. Mc-Elroy, J. Bobb and R. Livingston, while the Greys put C. Dorman, C. Fowler, T. Cayten, C. Clarke and D. Harrison on the court.

Distinguished Alumni Visit Camp

The Wigwam, never very efficient in its social coverage, has been very remiss of late with its reports on visiting firemen. During August it has failed to remark the visits of such distinguished and fondly remembered Kawanhee friends as: Dr. and Mrs. Frederic Heimberger of Ohio State, spending three weeks of vacation in their summer home "up Center Hill way"; Ted Nelson, a camper in the '40's and a counselor in the '50's, who was at the Inn for ten days; Dick Miller and Mrs. Miller taking a week end off from Dick's studies for his Ph. D. in Economics at Yale; Dr. Joe Shepard of Columbus, a camper and counselor from 'way back when, visiting his two sons who are currently on Kawanhee's roster; and Bill Chipman who came over for a Sunday from his home in Lubec, Maine, where he has been working this summer.

No record of the season's closing days, however, would be complete without brief mention of several most welcome old-timers. Judge and Mrs. George Marshall spent the final week of the season at Kawanhee. George was a counselor here a number of years ago, and Polly more recently spent two summers as Kawanhee's nurse. Kawanhee was also happy to see another counselor-nurse team, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cole of Columbus — she was Betty Carroll when she presided in the Infirmary — return to spend the closing days with their son, another Tom Cole. Pete Neidig, a well re-membered camper of the '30's, and Mrs. Neidig joined the second-generation gallery for the season's finale, as did Jack Ruhle. And a brief, but enthusiastically noted, visit was paid Kawanhee by Dick Stillinger, now of the Equitable Life Insurance Co. in New York.

Symbolic Ceremony Handsomely Presented

Chief Kawanhee paid his ceremonial visit of farewell Saturday evening, August 23. With the whole camp and many guests gathered around the pine-guarded Ring on Council Point, a dressed-up version of the familiar ritual was smoothly unrolled in the gathering twilight. After the three calls, and the Chief's impressive entrance into the Council Ring, the kindling of the central fire was accom-plished by Dave Forry in a colorful Indian dance. Ed Chace dominated the scene with his customary sonorous personification of Kawanhee. George McElroy read the message of this summer's sachems in clear and most happily audible tones, and Ben McCoy ceremonially buried the scroll in the Ring to welcome the campers of 1959. The lighting of the lodge fires was most effectively handled. Built close to the central fire, they blazed up promptly and handsomely when touched by the brands of the boys representing the lodges, forming a band of fire around the big flame, as man and boy joined hands and turned out toward the forest with the Chief's final words in their ears.

The Sachems' message follows:

"The campers of 1958 send this message to the campers of 1959:"

"What have you come to put into the camp this year? You can only take with you what you put in. To do this you must know a camp is made up of Trust, Loyalty and Friendship, and we pass that on knowing that you will continue where we left off this year."

"Of what do these consist? First of all, Trust. Be de-pendable! Be loyal to the faith that others hold for you. Keep their hopes high by coming through when the going gets rough and keep their hearts warm with respect for you. Counselors, judge your standards by the peaceful faces of the boys at night!"

"Play fair with yourself. It isn't so much winning as it is to know that you have done the best job possible. Earn the respect of your team and show them that even if they aren't on top that you will be there giving them your best."

"Enlarge your circle of friends by your willingness to work, your toleration of others' opinions, your co-operation of others' ideals and by showing your cheerfulness at all times."

"Play the game hard — so that when the season's done, no one will realize who's lost or won, but how you played the game."

Signed — Sachems of 1958: George McElroy, Ben Mc-Coy, John Long, Hilton Long, Richard Bentley, Robin Wells. Advisor, Ross Miller.

Sunday Morning Service

The final Sunday morning service of the summer was held in the Chapel on the Shore at 11:00 A.M. August 24. Ben McCoy read the lesson; George McElroy led the prayer; and the quartet composed of Mr. George Frank, Mr. Ray-mond Frank, Mr. William Heimberger and Mr. Ben Ben-nett invested the occasion with considerable musical distinction. Dean Miller's sermon was in answer to the question, "What awaits us around the corner?" His prayer of the morning is quoted in full below:

"Our Father!"

"We are not our own, for Thou hast made us, and provided us the weapons for victory in life! Keep us alert, on our toes, lest we be caught napping off base! Help us to guard our bodies with purity, and our hearts with honor!"

"Keep our memories fresh with the noble experiences we have enjoyed at Kawanhee: the winds that blow clean and cool on Tumbledown; the sunsets beyond the Gap; the contests that invite us to victory; the quiet places among the pines that are unfinished symphonies of God!"

"So, our Father, through the days after leaving camp, we want to live more as we should live — dependable like the rising sun; straight and upright like the pines that point upwards to the skies; brave and loyal to the best ideals we know, and faithful to Thee."

"Build us up as Christian gentlemen — made of the stuff that innocent children can safely trust and our loved ones can be glad to see in us."

"Forgive those deeds that shame us — those base thoughts that drag us down — those unkind words, and profane speech that are beneath our best."

"Beyond the contests that await us 'around the corner', give us, we pray, the joy of honorable victory, the happiness that is ours for doing our honest best, and the crown that awaits the man who is kingly, like Christ!"

"This winter make our homes lovelier and our schools better, and our games cleaner because we have been at Kawanhee."

"In Jesus name, Amen."

Banquet Winds up Successful Season

At 1:00 P.M. Sunday, August 24, the Dining Hall doors were thrown open to welcome the dressiest concourse of the season — whites, jackets, and an amazing number of neckties — to the annual banquet. The gaily decked room was scarcely to be recognized as the stark detention chamber where refreshments have been served this summer during the prolonged programs of announcements three times a day. Evergreens, and Maroon and Grey streamers decorated the walls, and the tables were festive with bunchberries, ground pine and candy-filled individual favors trimmed in Maroon and Grey. Mary Baker, that most gracious and thoughtful member of the Kawanhee tribe, was the moving spirit behind all this, with Mrs. Bateman, Mrs. Nowold and the kitchen boys as her able assistants. The feast which graced the occasion matched the setting — fruit cup, turkey, stuffing, cranberry, vegetables, home-made rolls and so forth, right through to ice cream and Emma's special cake, each piece iced with its own "K". It was not to be wondered that at one point the crowd exploded into a great "Heep Wah" for "Emma and all the rest of them in the kitchen"!

For the awards ceremony in the Recreation Hall at 3:00 P.M. the camp was joined by many campers' parents and other most welcome guests. Dean Miller opened the program on a reflective note, speaking on the very special quality which he has found in Kawanhee over many years, the quality which accounts for the notable continuity of personalities, of families, and, particularly, of ideals. No better personification of this could be found than Mr. H. C. Marshall, the "Chief" of Kawanhee's growing, youthful years, and he received a hearty round of applause when his presence was noted. Other most enthusiastic hands saluted the nurse, Mrs. Compher, and the Camp Mother, Mrs. R. C. Frank, two ladies who have held the highest places in the camp's affections all summer. With that, the session buckled down to the business of awards, and big business it was, after so successful a summer! Plaques were dealt with — new plaques, old plaques and, most important of all, completed plaques. The cup awards were announced. Ribbons were presented and the worry arose lest Mike Olson, even with his athletic stamina, might become winded racing back and forth to the speakers' table to accept all his winnings. The meritorious awards were proclaimed and various prizes distributed, a most responsive chord being struck by the Nature Department's special award to Pop Nowold for "The Study of Human Nature". Life Saving badges were presented and the high point winners were listed. At last the great moment arrived when Dave Fergus, after milking the moment of the last drop of suspense, pinned the ultimate number on the banner to publish the score. The result of that revelation truly rocked the Hall, until Ben McCoy, in a heart-felt little speech, thanked his team and all concerned for a wonderful summer and led "a cheer they could hear in Boston". George McElroy, the other very popular captain, capped that with two cheers — "one for Ben and one for the Greys".

That wrapped it up for the year! There remained only a brief dip at Sunday Beach, a very early Taps, a round of farewells Monday morning, and the happy season of 1958 was one for the books!
