Maroons Score Surprise Victory

The victory for 1959 belongs to the Maroons! At the end of an action-packed final week they came from behind to snatch the banner honors from their incredulous opponents in a stunning upset. The long-awaited score announced by Dave Fergus on August 24th was: Maroons, 25,772; Greys, 25,490. In the concluding seven days of activities, the Maroons had wiped out what looked like a comfortable Grey advantage of 840 points and had built up a 282-point lead of their own. And those 282 points stamped the big summer of 1959 as a Maroon year in the annals of Kawanhee.

To Captain Ted Dunlap and his exultant team this represented a moral victory far greater than a mere handful of points. They had experienced a long, lean summer at the skinny end of the score. True, very briefly they had eaten high off the hog in the first meager score report of July 11th. The next week, however, the Greys elbowed them out and from that date on the Maroons, week after week, had to watch their rivals enjoying the lead. It was immensely to their credit that their fighting spirit never waned, and first and loudest to pay tribute to their triumph were Captain John Bobb and all of the Greys.

The days between August 16th and noon of August 22nd added up to one of the heaviest-scoring periods in Kawanhee history. The score more than doubled itself, the combined total jumping from 22,152 points to 51,262. Of the 29,110 points recorded during the week, the Maroons earned 15,116 and the Greys 13,994. Sizable chunks of these totals, of course, were derived from sources which report only once a season. The big class in Life Saving produced 3,200 points. Tournaments in Archery, Tennis and Wrestling and the concluding Sailing regatta made impressive contributions. Scouting reported a record-breaking 1,300 points. For the bulk of the score, however, one need only look at the massive list of Achievement Levels printed elsewhere on these pages. This stands for the pay-off on a tremendous amount of good, solid work in every department throughout the summer, and it is altogether fitting that such work should have been the decisive factor in shaping the final score.

Fischgrund Tops High Point List

Riding the crest of the scoring wave were fifty-four high point winners with Tom Fischgrund in the lead by virtue of his individual score of 805 points. Every camper who scores 400 points or better is recognized as a "high point winner" at the closing ceremonies. This summer's list of these ambitious gentlemen is one of the longest and most impressive in Kawanhee's memory.

Tom Fischgrund, the ranking score winner for the whole camp, is no stranger to this list, for last summer he was well up among the high point winners with 535 points. One major item in his 1959 total was the 200-point bonus for completing his Junior B plaque in two seasons. With the exception of entry points conscientiously collected from every available tournament, his handsome total was otherwise derived entirely from work in Achievement Levels.

Close on Tom's heels came Bill Neidig with 790 points. The pattern of Bill's score resembled Tom's — a 200-point plaque bonus, tournament entry points and the bulk in levels. Third-ranking Lee Perry added 100 J. L. S. points and 80 points earned in three tournaments to his levels for a total of 760. Tim Pears, in fourth place, was the most versatile of the top men in exploiting assorted sources for his 745 points — 100 from Life Saving, 45 points from Scouting, 55 earned in tournaments and a 100-point bonus for a plaque completed in three years, in addition to the foundation of levels.

The list of the top ten high point winners also embraced: H. Murray, fifth; F. Stewart, sixth; R. McCandless, seventh; P. Evans, eighth; A. McElroy, ninth; and R. Shepard, tenth. Some hint of the origins of the Maroon victory may be found in the fact that Fischgrund and seven more of these top men belonged to that team, only Neidig and Stewart being Greys. There follows a complete list of the high point winners for 1959 arranged alphabetically for the whole camp:

Scouting Hits New Kawanhee High

Under the leadership of Dave Forry and Ed Chace, Kawanhee's Boy Scouts set a record of accomplishment in 1959. Twenty-six boys earned a total of seventy-seven merit badges in eighteen different fields, while seven campers completed the work for Second Class rank, and two for First Class. Certificates for this work, to be presented by each scout to his home Board of Review, were signed by a Kawanhee Board of Review consisting of Herb Birch, Gene Cayten, Ed Chace, Forrest Dexter, R. C. Frank, Dave Forry, Dean Miller and Jack Welton.

Point values, ranging from 10 to 25, are assigned to the various ranks and merit badges by the Scouting Department. From this source several campers won sizable blocks of points for their teams. Jim Holden's eight merit badges added up to 140 points, while Bill Ruggles won 100 points with six merit badges, and Dave Roth 95 with five. There follows a list of Boy Scout tests passed and the point-value of each:

Junior and Senior Life Saving

No group of awards announced at the closing ceremonies commands more respectful attention than do the names of the winners of American Red Cross Life Saving certificates, for the completion of such work is one of the most substantial and durable accomplishments of any Kawanhee summer. This year's notably large class of twenty-eight Junior Life Savers and four Senior Life Savers took the course under the able instruction of Gardner Defoe and Dave Fergus, assisted by Tony Hirsch, Bill Keating and other members of the Swimming Department. Both J. L. S. and S. L. S. are rated at 100 points. There follows the list of those campers and Junior Counselors who completed the course in 1959:

Junior Life Saving: L. Andre, R. Barnes, D. Bittenbender, B. G. Burr, S. Campbell, H. Cory, S. Culter, C. Del Valle, R. Evans, J. Forman, J. Gallagher, T. Gallagher, J. Glidden, P. Gockenbach, M. Murphy Stars on Variety Bill

Kawanhee's two-show theatrical season achieved a slam-bang finale in the Recreation Hall Tuesday evening, August 18th, with a bill which alternated melodramatic punch with raucous fun. Six assorted acts, presented in the form of a TV variety program, were loosely held together by the services of George McElroy, doubling in brass as M. C. and Bulb-snatcher-in-Chief, by Bob Angerer's unctuously gruesome commercials for Casey's Cozy Coffins, and by the plush-upholstered tones of Sturge Dorrance, the offstage announcer on the public address system.

Topical wit was very much to the fore when the curtain opened on the Crows' Nest adaptation of the well known skit, If Men Played Cards as Women Do. Paced by Jim Holden as Del Tracy, a cast consisting of J. Fisher (Pop Nowold), J. Gallagher (G. R.), and M. Sabback (R. C.), drew both chuckles and guffaws with a highly imaginative impression of how Kawanhee's high command might spend a social evening. The humor was broader in the "fashion show" staged later in the program. Particularly in their concluding dance, those remarkably assembled charmers, Miss High Water (J. Kraemer), Miss Zelda Bird (C. Fowler), Miss Natasha Fripp (E. Kersten) and Miss Brigitte Bolshevik (C. Clarke), made up in gallumph whatever they may have lacked in Oomph. The evening's loudest laughs, however, were won by monologist Tony Hirsch with his readings from Shelley — Berman, that is, not the poet!

The heavy dramatics of the evening were furnished by another solo Thespian, Jim Murphy, returning to the camp stage after several seasons. As the second entrant on the bill, he scored solidly with Poe's A Cask of Amontillado, and then had his listeners on the edges of their benches again at the end of the evening with The Button by Robert Newman. It was a pleasure to discover that Jim had lost none of his familiar authority in these exciting monologues. The one musical group on the schedule, John Bobb and the Four Beachcombers, also introduced a certain amount of suspense into its turn — suspense as to whether the boys were ever going to find a key, any key. Once rolling, however, they gave valiant account of themselves in Jamaica Farewell and Scarlet Ribbons.

A large and responsive audience was, in the end, loath to give up hand-clapping and to depart, and only did so after a particularly hearty salvo of applause in honor of producer Sturges Dorrance and his second highly successful effort toward putting "live shows" back into the Kawanhee scheme of things.

Movies provided two other evenings of Rec Hall entertainment. Monday brought forth the "plum" of this summer's movie package, Captain Cousteau's superb underwater picture, The Silent World. John Nowold's frequently threatened "rainy night movie", Harmon of Michigan, was finally trotted out Friday evening, and it was just the night for it.

Maroons and Greys Divide Track Meets

In the concluding field events of the summer, a series of four track meets run off between August 14th and August 19th, the Maroons and the Greys divided the honors evenly, each capturing two meets, but the Greys carried off a slight point advantage, 290 to 278, for the whole series. The Maroons scored solid victories in the Junior B events (73-31) begun on August 14th and completed Monday, August 17th, and in the Junior B Cub meet (77-27) of Tuesday, August 18th. All Stars Swamp Green Ghosts

On Saturday, August 22nd, the league-champion Green Ghosts faced their most formidable foes, a hand-picked group of players from the other three teams. A ballot by the managers of the three losing teams showed the following players chosen: from the Red Devils, J. Glidden, Sonny Dargusch, Tom Lutz, Roy Welton and Dick Morton; from the Blue Streaks, Chuck Compher, Hoyt Cory, Bob Barnes, Tom Fischgrund, and John Osborne; and from the Black Labels, Tim Hirsch, Randy Evans, Dave Roth and Rick Carrick.

The All Stars struck first in their half of the first inning by scoring a pair of runs on a triple by Randy Evans. Pitcher Lutz put down the Green Ghosts in order in the bottom of the first. Not content with their small lead, the All Stars scored five runs in their half of the second, running their lead to 7-0. Highlights of this rally were singles by Chuck Compher and Sonny Dargusch, and a double by John Glidden.

The Greens came back in a desperate effort to surge ahead by scoring five runs in the last of the second when Tom Lutz ran into a considerable wild streak.

The third inning brought five runs for the All Stars. After the bases were loaded, Chuck Compher hit a tremendous triple to right. This was followed by a homer by Tom Lutz. Mr. Lutz then showed his contempt of the league champions by setting them down in order in the last half of the inning.

The All Stars ended their scoring with two more runs in the fourth, both runs scoring on John Glidden's second double of the day. The Greens scored their last run on a pair of errors, making the final score 14-6 in favor of the All Stars.

Campfire and Sunday Service

The 1959 season went into its closing round of services and ceremonies with the campfire of Saturday evening, August 22nd. Another fine-feathered display of Indian choreography opened this gathering on Council Point as Joel Pardee and Dave Forry performed a stirring Shawnee Devil Dance. No lists of Achievement Levels were announced, but other awards in Archery, Range and Sailing were made, and the week's list of swimming tests read. The final installment of Dean Miller's continued story, The Toilers of the Sea, was the feature of the evening.

The glorious, bright morning of Sunday found as large a congregation in the chapel on the shore as had ever gazed out past the birch cross to the blue lake and the green mountains. Most appropriately the opening hymn was "O beautiful for spacious skies". Ed Chace read from the 19th chapter of Matthew, and Dave Fergus gave the prayer. Dean Miller built his memorable sermon around the image of "Sailing" — the ship, the Skipper, and the sailor.

At this service, and at other gatherings of the weekend, it was a great pleasure to note the presence of several campers and counselors of former years. Among them were George Benua and the first editions of a couple of currently popular camp names, Dick Morton and Tom Cole. Several other gentlemen doubling as reminiscent returnees and proud parents provoked welcomes of particular enthusiasm: John Langer of Ypsilanti, Michigan, who was very active on the Webb Lake shores in the early '30's; Pete Neidig of Berwyn, Pennsylvania, a well remembered camper of the same decade; Bill Bittenbender of Wynnewood, Pennsylvania, one-time head of the Campcraft (it was Woodcraft then) Department and one of the builders of the Scout Cabin; Henry Houston of Springfield, Ohio, a camper of the 1930 vintage; Dr. Ed Yantes of Wilmington, Ohio, who recalls that in 1924 he was "the smallest boy in camp and swam the lake". And, as always, it brought a glow to Kawanhee's happiest memories to see, at the morning service, the camp's original and irreplaceable "Chief", Mr. H. C. Marshall.

Last Water Meet Won by Greys

The Greys won the final water meet of the season by the closest aquatic score of the year, 106-98. The program, originally scheduled for Saturday but postponed because of a too boisterous wind, was presented Sunday afternoon, August 23rd, under ideal weather conditions — clear skies, bright sun, comfortable temperature and a light breeze.

The Greys captured the meet only in the final event, the water polo game which they won handily, two goals to none, for 15 points to reverse their pre-game disadvantage of 91-98. The battle was a close one all the way through the meet, with neither team enjoying an advantage of more than a few points at any time, and with the lead changing from one to the other five times. This exciting state of affairs, however, was little appreciated by the large gallery since only one report on the score-in-progress was made, and no announcement of winners' names in the various events. It remained for the various spectators — and for once parents and other visiting photographers bid fair to outnumber the campers on the beach — good-humoredly to cheer all competitive efforts alike and to reserve their more attentive enthusiasm for Bill Keating's diving and a couple of two-entry races of special interest.

The first of these was the summer's third swimming of an individual medley by the two Junior A water stars, Tim Hirsch and Ross Shepard. Shepard built up a narrow lead in the initial backstroke length, but lost it inch by inch in the succeeding breaststroke lap. In this Hirsch finally pulled a length ahead and gained so decisively on the second turn that he had the final crawl lap all his own way. The crowd-appeal of the Junior B "barrel race" was of a somewhat different nature. Roy Welton and Dick Morton, aboard two teetery, twirling tubs made of half-barrels, were required to hand-paddle from dock to dock, each with a private salvage company in the form of his team captain wading behind. Either from over-enthusiasm or from the natural cussedness of his tub, Morton continually shipped water and twice had to be raised from the bottom and re-floated. Welton, thanks to nice balancing and some very finicky paddling, stayed on the surface to navigate his cranky craft up to the big dock well in the lead.

The program was further highlighted by an exhibition of tandem water-skiing by George and Tim McElroy, and by a demonstration of the competitive orthodox breaststroke by Tony Hirsch. All through the afternoon the finals of the Sailing Regatta formed a handsome and occasionally distracting background on the glittering blue lake. An early announcement revealed that Dave Bittenbender was leading at the end of the second of the four races. Just at the conclusion of the water polo game, the final returns of the regatta were declared — Dave Bittenbender had won with 22 points out of a possible 24. J. McGee placed second in the regatta, while S. Campbell and B. Welton tied for third.

Snake Dance Added to Chief's Farewell

Kawanhee reached its traditional finale Sunday, the 23rd, with the ceremony known as "the going of the Chief." At 7:30, we gathered in the Council Ring for the last time to hear Chief Kawanhee (a feather-and-warpaint-bedecked Ed Chace) give his advice and blessing for the coming year.

First, however, the drums of the Indian Lore Department rolled into action once again with an exciting adaptation of a Hopi snake dance. With B. G. Burr building rhythm behind the action on the skin drum, Joel Pardee entered the ring, in the now familiar Indian colors, holding a long black snake across his arms. He danced slowly around the council circle, displaying the snake to all the "braves" present, and then came to a sudden halt before the yet unlighted central fire. Dave Forry poked a blazing torch into the piled logs, sending flames crackling up through the wood and then skyward. Dave, Joel and B. G. filed slowly out of the ring.

Next on the program, Chief Kawanhee appeared at the vocal promptings of Mr. R. C. Frank. The Chief greeted us and called for the older boys who had been elected "Sachems" to read the message from this year's campers to the boys of next summer. The future Kawanheeans were advised to have "fun" but "fun with a purpose." The message, once read, was deposited in a jar and from there into the ground where theoretically it will rest until next season.

We now turned our attention back to Chief Kawanhee who had been waiting on the edge of the ring. He called for the Senior Lodge Counselors to come forward and light the lodges' individual fires with brands taken from the central fire. The Council Ring blazed with light when each man had finished. The Chief then spoke at length about the beauties of Kawanhee and our loyalty to the camp. We turned, when he had finished, and walked slowly back to our lodges, realizing how rapidly the season was drawing to a close.

Season Closes with Big Banquet

The long anticipated banquet and awards ceremony put the lid on the season Monday, August 24th. At 1:00 P.M. the big banquet was served in a dining hall which looked remarkably festive thanks to the evergreen and bunchberry decorations of Mrs. Bateman, Joel Pardee and the Deers, and to the place favors honoring Kawanhee's Archery Department created by the ladies of Pine Lodge. The feast served by Emma, Abby and their assistants more than matched the holiday air of the occasion — fruit cup, turkey, stuffing, etc., etc., etc., right on through to ice cream and cake, each piece individually iced with a "K".

The whole camp, with many guests, reconvened in the Recreation Hall at 3:00 P.M. for the program of awards. Dean Miller opened on a serious note as he spoke of the continuity of Kawanhee and of Kawanhee names, and John Nowold introduced the year's two very popular captains, Ted Dunlap and John Bobb. With that, the body addressed itself to the business of the day — plaques, cups, ribbons, awards — and, paced by Raymond Frank's "Read 'em right off, read 'em right off!", cheered and clapped its way briskly through a generous list to arrive in record time at the climactic moment when Dave Fergus, number by misleading number, pinned the final score to the banner. The great cheer which greeted this revelation was a fitting finale for the big summer of 1959.

Wigwam Deliveries Delayed in Mails

In conclusion, please bear with a word or two concerning the Wigwam itself. As August has progressed, reports of late and erratic mail deliveries of the Wigwam have reached camp in increasing numbers, indicating a general hold-up somewhere along the line. The weekly editions of the Wigwam have regularly been mailed from Weld every Friday since July 10th. In other summers this schedule has usually assured delivery on the following Monday in most homes to which the paper was addressed, but many copies during the past month have not been delivered for a week or even longer. The Directors and the Wigwam staff sincerely regret these delays. The difficulty as far as can be determined lies in the Boston post office which, according to report, is a week or more behind in the handling of third and fourth class mail as the result of confusion attending some reorganization. The Wigwams, which have always been mailed fourth class, have presumably been caught in the bottleneck. It is hoped that this final number will travel the mails with greater dispatch.

The Wigwam would like to grasp this opportunity of paying its respects to a few of those who have played important parts in its production this summer. "Thank-you's" of a most particular nature are hereby addressed: to Lee Defoe, the most efficient as well as the most charming circulation manager who has ever graced this paper; to every kind-hearted Inn-mate who folded Wigwams for mailing on a Thursday evening; to those amiable and articulate gentlemen, Ed Chace and Pete Schofield, who were always good for a first-rate trip article; to those able sports reporters, Dave Angerer and Bob Guthrie; and to those invaluable assistant editors, Ed Kersten and Sturges Dorrance whose contributions, both signed and unsigned, have provided so much of the Wigwam's best substance this summer. The privilege of working with these ladies and gentlemen, along with the unfailing attractiveness of those about whom the Wigwam is written and the generously expressed appreciation of many of those for whom the Wigwam is composed, has made one more summer at the editor's desk a genuine pleasure for

Yours Truly,

C. Scarlett
